THE MARKET IS BOOMING!

Not since 1974 has the coin market experienced such rapid, dramatic growth. The coins we listed in our last mailer in October sold so fast we could hardly keep up with the orders!

Investors, it seems, are searching for more profitable, reliable alternatives to the instability of the stock market, and rare coin investment is providing such an alternative. This situation, coupled with the current "gold craze," has vitalized the coin market in recent months. And it's not only gold that is spurring the market — the demand for silver dollars is putting considerable pressure on the available supply. Dealer list prices continue to rise for these coins, and they're becoming increasingly difficult to locate. Rare coins have proven to be tremendous investments in the past, and present economic and numismatic indicators point to an equally promising future.

This listing offers you an attractive selection of entirely new purchases, plus a number of very special prices on some very choice coins. If we can be of any assistance with your order, please give us a call.

Indian Head Quarter Eagles,

1908 to 1929

From 1908 to 1929, the United States Mint issued fifteen different dates and mintmarks of the Indian Head Quarter Eagle. The design is incuse (i.e. stamped into the coin). The only other U.S. coin with an incuse design is the Indian Head Half Eagle, also issued during the same period. Indian Head Quarter Eagles are recommended for investment for many reasons. The series seems to have "everything going for it," as they say. Some of the reasons are:

1) The series is collectible as a complete set.

Some series of United States coins are not collectible as a complete set, such as $5 gold pieces. Where can the collector obtain Half Eagles of 1815, 1822, 1841-O even if he can afford them? If he wishes to collect a mint state set of Indian Head Half Eagles, where does he obtain a 1913-S, 1911-D or 1909-O? These factors can be a deterrent to collectors, thus hurting the investment potential of a series. Conversely, all issues of the Indian Head Quarter Eagle series are obtainable in mint state. Quite scarce, to be sure, but collectible.

2) The series is affordable.

The key date of the series, the 1911-D, sells for about $1250 to $2000 in mint state. Most of the other dates can be purchased for $175 in Choice BU and about $250 in Gem BU. The dates 1908 and 1914 cost more, and other "sleeper" dates discussed later cost a little more. Therefore, a complete set is a reasonable undertaking and can be completed for about $4,000 to $5,250 depending on quality.

3) Indian Quarter Eagles are not "bullion" coins.

When the United States went off the gold standard in 1933, large quantities of United States gold coins were stored in Swiss bank vaults. In recent years, Swiss banks have given daily quotes on $20, $10, and $5 gold pieces, but not on Quarter Eagles. Indian Quarter Eagles are not available in "bulk" quantity, and have not been for many years, if ever.

4) Many issues are scarcer than the price indicates.

There is definite room for growth in this series. At the present time, scarce issues such as 1909, 1910, and 1914-D cost little more than the plentiful 1925-D or 1927. It is our opinion that this could change dramatically in the near future.

There are other reasons for the great investment potential of this series as well. They are 20th century coins, and 20th century coins are currently showing the fastest increase in price of all U.S. coins. They are gold, and many people want to own them for this reason. Furthermore, the Indian Quarter Eagle is an attractive coin. These factors make a great demand on a very limited supply, which creates a text book example of the most basic economic law: increased demand on a fixed or decreasing supply means increased prices. Every person who buys gasoline or coffee knows this only too well.

1908 — This issue always comes with a weakly defined eagle's "shoulder." This weakness is seen even on Proof coins, and therefore is probably due to die cutting rather than weak strike. It is in great demand as a first-year-of-type coin.

1909 — David Akers notes in his book on Quarter Eagles: "... this date is much more difficult to obtain in Choice Uncirculated condition than the later dates of this type."

1910 — Akers: "... more difficult to obtain in Choice Uncirculated condition than one might imagine."

1911 — A "common" date in circulated condition, but fairly scarce in Choice mint state.

1911-D — The key issue of the series, with a mintage of only 55,680. Of those, most were circulated or melted. A mint state 1911-D is by far the rarest Indian Quarter Eagle. There are two minor misconceptions about this issue. One, it is frequently stated that most specimens have a very weak mintmark. In fact, over 50% of the 1911-D Quarter Eagles we've seen had bold, clear mintmarks (and were still genuine, of course). Two, it is often said that there is always a partial wire rim on the obverse between 12 and 3 o'clock. This wire rim is sometimes found on a corresponding place on the reverse and missing from the obverse completely. This suggests that the wire rim was caused by collar placement (which sometimes shifted) and is not diagnostic of the dies.

1912, 1913, 1915 — These issues are "common" in circulated condition yet scarce in Choice mint state. They are presently "lumped together" with the issues of 1925-D — 1929, yet are much more difficult to locate.

1914 — From the standpoint of mintage and rarity, this coin is second only to the 1911-D. As this series becomes more specialized, a dramatic price increase on this issue is probable.

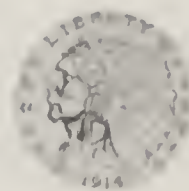

1914-D — This date and the 1908 issue are the only two Indian Quarter Eagles that are weakly defined (again, we avoid calling it "weak strike" on these two issues because it seems to be a die characteristic rather than die pressure). Scarce in Choice mint state.

1925-D, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929 — These late issues are easily located in Choice condition at the present time. However, the 1929 issue is more difficult because the strike is frequently weak or "fuzzy." The 1925-D also encounters some strike problems, but there are many nice strikes around as well.

While we make a concerted effort to buy top quality coins at all times, we have been making a special effort to buy Indian Quarter Eagles for the past few months. The issues from 1908 to 1915 are just as we said: "Not always easy to locate." These coins are offered for your consideration on a first-come, first-served basis.

U.S. MINT COIN DIES

A Unique Gift Idea

New England Rare Coin Galleries is proud to offer to our customers this once-in-a-lifetime numismatic opportunity. For the first time ever, you have the chance to own or give an invaluable treasure — the actual dies used in the minting of United States coinage, mounted in a specially designed unit. New England Rare Coin Galleries is the only firm from whom you can purchase these dies, as we bought all that the U.S. Government released to public ownership. Once our supply is exhausted, there will be no more dies on the market (the government now has stringent controls to preclude the release of any more dies from the mint). They are, however, completely legal to own as they were defaced at the mint.

These dies were used in the striking of the 1968 Proof sets, the first set ever not issued from the Philadelphia Mint, and the first to bear the mintmark of the newly reactivated San Francisco branch.

We are offering these dies set in a specially designed unit which holds the removable coin die, a descriptive plaque (detailing the history of the die), and a 1968 Proof coin of the denomination produced by that particular die. All these elements are set into a stand of American Maple wood with a walnut finish. Each of these units is totally unique, as each plaque bears the engraved serial number of the coin die in the unit.

New England Rare Coin Galleries is offering this remarkable collector's item at a price that is incredibly low when one considers that there is only a small, finite supply available. Never again will you have this opportunity.

The dies are available either mounted as a complete unit (including descriptive plaque and Proof coin) for $39.95, or by themselves for $29.95. Denomination is our choice, but we will try to accommodate your preferences. Offer limited to no more than three (3) dies per customer. Please include $1.95 for handling and shipping; allow 2-3 weeks for delivery.

This holiday season, give a truly unique gift — or, better still, give yourself a vital part of numismatic history. Never again will you have this opportunity.

ALTERNATE CHOICES

Since many of our listed items are understandably one of a kind, we ask that you list alternate selections so that we may have a better chance of completing your order. Of course, we will not send out any alternate selections unless your first choices have already been sold. If you are ordering for a type set, please list "type coin" as your alternate choice so if your first choice is not available, we can fill your order with another coin of the same type in equal or higher grade.

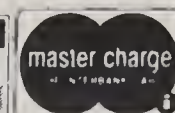

TERMS OF SALE

Please enclose full remittance with your order unless you have previously established credit with us. Massachusetts residents only please add 5% sales tax or else furnish us with your tax-exempt resale number. An immediate refund will be sent on all items which have already been sold.

RETURN PRIVILEGE. We offer a full 30 day return privilege on all coins. This means that any coin may be returned within 30 days from receipt for an immediate refund for any reason or for no reason at all! All items are subject to prior sale and all prices are subject to change without notice. This listing cancels all previous prices for any item listed here. A copy of our famous grading and authenticity guarantee is free upon request. We feel it is the most comprehensive guarantee available in the industry.

APPROVAL SERVICE. Coins can be sent to you on approval if you have previously established credit with us. Please send us banking references and at least two numismatic references if possible.

MASTER CHARGE and BAC/VISA are welcome, however, we request that you send written order, which must contain your signature as it appears on your card along with all the raised information. You may call to reserve items to be paid for by credit cards, but the coins will be held pending receipt of your written order.

GRADING GUARANTEE

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards when you wish to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade as they were sold, and, if you request auction for disposal of your collection, that New England Rare Coin Auctions will catalog your coins at the same grade which you purchased them.

We further guarantee the authenticity of all coins listed. As proof of our certainty that no counterfeit or altered coin can escape our attention, we will guarantee to refund full purchase price plus 10% interest per year on any non-authentic coin sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries.
